R. K. Thompson, a Cincinnati newspaper man, who is Republican financial director for Illinois, and Carl D. Fritsche, executive secretary of the Michigan ways and means committee, testified at the night session. Mr. Fritsche said the Michigan quota ways $250,000 for the Republican National Committee and $100,000 for State purposes. In dividing the quota among the congressional districts, the figures were boosted, he said, on the theory that it was necessary to ask for more than he expected to get. He asked for $358,400 to get $250,000 for the national committee.

of a minor natura, the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company today reached the peak of its service since the strike of its $,000 employes was inaugurated twelve days ago. Night service on some of the trolley lines was attempted tonight for the first time.

Interference with its service complained of by the company to the police today included the throwing of a piece of wire over a trolley feed wire and a fire in an elevated train believed to have been caused by the detachment of a battery switch. Lindley M. Garrison, receiver for the company, estimated tonight that about 2.000 of the strikers had returned to work. The other 6.009 who remain out, he declared, were now regarded as former employes and no longer considered as strikers.
